Communion Sentence

The Lord remaineth a King for ever: The Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

Holy Communion

The Sacrament is offered in both kinds, both bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms X, and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Communion Hymn 319 Lord, enthroned in heavenly splendour St. Osmund

Motet O King, All Glorious Healey Willan

O King, all glorious, amid thy saintly company, Who ever shalt be praised, who overpassest utterance. Thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy Holy Name; leave us not, O our God, that in the day of judgement it may please thee to place us in the number of thy saints and blessed ones, O King most blessed.

Prayer of Thanksgiving page 85

√. Depart in the peace of Christ.

℟. Thanks be to God.

ATTENDANCE November 17th, 2024

8.00 a.m. 11

10.30 a.m. 61

Sunday Morning Child Care: At the 10:30 a.m. Eucharist, a qualified childcare provider is delighted to welcome any younger children in the nursery downstairs beside the Sunday School room.

TODAY – November 24: Today Sunday, November 24, we are observing the Feast of Christ the King. It is also the Sunday next before Advent. We welcome our former Rector, Father Peter Harris, with us today as celebrant at both the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services. Father Harris will also be with us next Sunday (Dec. 1st).

Important Notice: While Father David is away, it is very thoughtful to want to reach out to him to wish him well and see how he is doing but he needs this time for all of us to carry the parish together and let him rest and focus on himself. It may sound hard, but we have been asked to please not reach out to him. If he contacts you then you may reply but please do not initiate any contact with him by texts, email, or calls. If you would like to send him a card please put it on the offertory plate and we will send them to him in one mailing in a few weeks. Please continue to pray for him as we all look forward to his return. Thank you for understanding.

FundScrip Explanation

As many of you know, we, like many other sports teams, churches, etc raise funds through the company called FundScrip. This is a great way to generate revenue with very minimal effort on our part. We thought an explanation of this system might be handy.

How does this work? Individuals exchange their cash for store cards which they then use when shopping at that store.

Does this cost the individuals? No, it is an even swap – cash for store cards.

How does St. Peter's make money from this? The stores give back to us a small percentage (1-5%) of the cards we all use in their stores.

Is there a benefit to me as well? Yes. Each user gets a tax receipt from St. Peters for the amount of that percentage we generated back to the church.

How do I get the store cards? There are order forms (with a list of the participating stores) at the back of the church to fill out. Hand this, along with a cheque or cash for the cards you want, to Jack Stewart or into the church office.

Within one week you will be given the cards you ordered. Then you are free to use them when you shop. Example- Use an Ultramar card the next time you get gas, use a Starbucks card for your next coffee, use a grocery store card for some of your grocery shopping, etc.

For every dollar of rebate that you create for St. Peter's you get a tax receipt at the end of the year!

Hope that helps but should you have any questions please talk to either Jack Stewart or Moe Rodgeron.

* St. Andrew the Apostle

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. None shall appear before me empty-handed, said the voice of God to ancient Israel. So the worshipper came pulling in a ram by the horn, or carrying a pair of doves. We do not come empty-handed, our hand being in the hand of Christ, as he goes onward to his sacrifice. Is he our victim, then, and do we lead him to God's altar? Yes, he is our victim; he goes with us willingly, to make our peace with God. But do we lead him, or is it he that leads us? The question cannot be answered one way or the other. It is one mind that leads both him and us to the altar, but that mind is the mind of Christ, his mind mastering ours. His will is that we should offer him; yet with himself he offers us. He too will not be empty-handed; he will present us along with himself. And his desire is to present us not as empty men, empty hearts to God: happy if he can present us full of good works and faithful prayers since our last communion; if not so, then full at least of penitence and careful resolution for the coming days; but not empty, not just empty.
