Introit standing

Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awake and cast us not away forever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? Our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise, and save us, O Lord, our helper and our deliverer. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awake and cast us not away forever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? Our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise, and save us, O Lord, our helper and our deliverer.

Communion Sentence

I will go unto the altar of God: even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

Holy Communion

Every Christian who is baptized and a communicant in his or own congregation is welcome to receive Holy Communion. The Sacrament is offered in both kinds, bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms, and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Motet during the ablutions O Thou, the Central Orb Charles Wood

O Thou the central orb of righteous love, Pure beam of the most high, Eternal light of this our wintry world, Thy radiance bright awakes new joy in faith, Hope soars above, above./ Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine, Gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine. Thy saints with holy lustre round Thee move, As stars about thy throne, set in the height of God's ordaining counsel, As thy sight gives measur'd grace to each, Thy power to prove./ Let Thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin, Our nature all shall feel eternal day, In fellowship with Thee, Transforming day to souls erewhile unclean, now pure within, now pure within. Amen.

ARE ALL RELIGIONS REALLY THE SAME?

How are they alike, and how are they different? What makes Christianity unique?

Tuesday, February 6, 7:00 p.m. in the Cathedral Hall

In today’s world, and in our local community, we encounter people of various faiths more and more. As Christians and as citizens in of our community it’s helpful for us to know what other religions teach and value, what we share, and where we differ. Dr Philip Davis, retired Professor of Religious Studies at U.P.E.I. will present an overview of some of the major religious traditions of the world: Hinduism and Buddhism, Confucianism and Daoism, Judaism, Islam, and Christianity. All are welcome, especially anyone seeking Baptism, and Confirmation and to understand membership in the Cathedral Parish

Annual Reports

Our Annual General Meeting is set for Sunday, MARCH 3 following the 10:30 service. Please prepare your report now and submit it to the Cathedral Office as soon as possible.

Pre-Lent

Today is the second Sunday of the three Sundays of the Season of the Church Year called Pre-Lent. This is the season of the “Gesimas”, that is, Septuagesima, Sexagesima and Quinquagesima, the Sundays that are respectively seventy, sixty and fifty days before Easter (approximately). In this season, there is a sort of “sea change” as we begin to turn our thoughts away from joyous celebrations of the Christmas and Epiphany Seasons, with their focus on the birth and manifestation of Christ, and toward the penitential season of Lent, with its focus on our Lord’s Suffering and death. Throughout Pre-Lent and Lent, the singing or saying of “Alleluia” is omitted during our church services. In Pre-Lent, the colour of the liturgical vestments and altar frontal changes from green to purple, giving us a visual cue that it is time to begin to prepare ourselves for Lent, the season of penitence and self-examination, but also the season of hope, as we look forward to the resurrection of Christ at Easter.

Today we dedicate a plaque
