Holy Communion

The Sacrament is offered in both kinds, both bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms X, and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Communion Hymn 324 O Thou, who at thy Eucharist Sacramentum Unitatis Anthem – Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring – J. S. Bach

Jesu, joy of man's desiring, Holy wisdom, Love most bright, Drawn by Thee, our souls aspiring soar to uncreated light. Word of God our flesh that fashioned with the fire of life impassioned. Striving still to Truth unknown, soaring, dying round Thy throne. Through the way where Hope is guiding, Hark, what peaceful music rings, Where the flock in Thee confiding, drink of joy from deathless springs. Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure, theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure. Thou dost ever lead Thine own, in the love of joys unknown.

Question Box Response:

HOW IS JESUS THE SON OF GOD?

The Bible has two large chapter books, the Old Testament and the New Testament. In the Old Testament, God told the Hebrew people that He would send His Son to them. In the New Testament, Jesus is born in a very special way with God as His father. One day after He had grown up and become a man, God sent His Spirit down from the sky as a dove. When the dove landed on Jesus, the voice of God from heaven told the people, "This is my beloved Son." Jesus did many special things like healing sick people and teaching about God, and after He was killed on the cross, He came back to life and gave more teachings to his followers. So, people have known that Jesus is very important and we should listen to what He teaches us about God and heaven and how to behave as good people.

* St. Simon & St. Jude;  All Saints' Day;  All Souls' Day from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The error of the unmerciful servant in Christ's parable is that he asserts his rights. He has a right to the recovery of his debt, and a right to the assistance of the law. He insists on having what is due to him, and he gets his due--he gets the prison and the torment. Perhaps hell is for those who ask for it; to those who claim their rights God gives their deserts, the rest he handles not in accordance with their merits but in accordance with his mercy. We all think we have rights--rights to so much pleasure and ease, rights to be let alone, rights to spend most of our money on ourselves, rights to receive apologies, rights to get our own back, rights to neglect other people's cares and concerns unless we have a fancy to meddle with them. Having rights is damnation; salvation is the receiving of Christ's body and blood, as paupers existing on the dying charity of the Son of God. We are not our own; we are bought with a price.
