Prayers

Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by Death or life; hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of thy love; and bring us all, with them, to thine eternal joy: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace do proceed: Kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all the true love of peace; and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, stretch forth your mighty arm to strengthen and protect the Armed Forces: grant that meeting danger with courage and all occasions with discipline and loyalty, they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace; to the honour of your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God of love, whose compassion never fails; we bring before you the griefs and perils of peoples and nations; the necessities of the homeless; the helplessness of the aged and weak; the sighings of the prisoners; the pains of the sick and injured; the sorrow of the bereaved. Comfort and relieve them, O merciful Father, according to their needs; for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Today's Communion Hymn

1. In our day of thanksgiving one psalm let us offer
For the Saints who before us have found their reward;
When the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed,
But now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord.

2. In the morning of life, and at noon, and at even,
He call'd them away from our worship below;
But not till his love, at the font and the Altar,
Had girt them with grace for the way they should go.

3. These stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
And dear is the ground where their feet have once trod;
Yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims,
And still they were seeking the city of God.

4. Sing praise, then, for all who here sought and here
found him;
Whose journey is ended, whose perils are past;
They believe in the Light; and its glory is round them,
Where the clouds of earth's sorrows are lifted at last.

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The Church celebrates the sacrifice of Christ with joy and not with sorrow. It would be an outrage ever to regret that God had achieved his purpose, and if there is one thing God has certainly desired, it is that he should be sacrificed for our salvation. His sacrifice is a joyful feast, a wedding, a drinking of wine. We make merry with a bridegroom because he has obtained what he desired, and we rejoice with the Divine Son, because he has his desire also. He desired to unite his Church with him by an irreversible act, and in dying he has accomplished it. It is the overflowing of the bridegroom's pleasure that enlivens the guests, and the Church rejoices in the overflowing of the joy of God. We cannot be as glad at what Christ has done for us, as he is glad to have done it.
