NEXT SUNDAY – November 24: Next Sunday, November 24, we will be observing the Feast of Christ the King. It is also the Sunday next before Advent. Our former Rector, Father Peter Harris, will be with us that day as celebrant at both the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services. Father Harris will also be with us on the following Sunday (December 1).

Important Notice: While Father David is away, it is very thoughtful to want to reach out to him to wish him well and see how he is doing but he needs this time for all of us to carry the parish together and let him rest and focus on himself. It may sound hard, but we have been asked to please not reach out to him. If he contacts you then you may reply but please do not initiate any contact with him by texts, email, or calls. If you would like to send him a card please put it on the offertory plate and we will send them to him in one mailing in a few weeks. Please continue to pray for him as we all look forward to his return. Thank you for understanding.

A Message from Fr. Stephen Petrie: I have been asked to share a brief biography for those who may be wondering who I am. I was born and grew up in Montreal and it is where I met my wife Diane at a computing course many years ago. I worked on the computer side of the printing business for 15 years, first in Montreal and then in Toronto. When Byron and Sarah came along, I followed a call to ministry and got my M.Div at AST in Halifax. I was ordained a deacon in 1995 and a priest the following year. I was a curate at St. Paul's here in Charlottetown before being appointed rector of Port Hill. From there, I was at St. George's Cathedral in Kingstown, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, then Holy Spirit in Dartmouth, Trinity Memorial in Montreal, and the final 10 years of ministry as hospital chaplain at Ste. Anne's Veterans Hospital in Montreal. Diane and I moved back to PEI three years ago to be closer to our grandson Remy. Now we are privileged to be members here at St. Peter's. Father Stephen from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. We may think that we worship God because he is infinitely greater than we; but that is not why we worship God. The eternal Son is the perfect worshipper of the eternal Father, and he is not less than the Father, he is equal with him. He has a better reason than we have for thankful adoration; the Father has given him more than he has given to us; he has given him as much as he has himself. The Son thanks the Father for pouring into him the whole divine life, and he has the whole divine life in which to live out his thanks. We should do well, if we could thank God for all we are, with all we are. He thanks God for all he is with all that God is, for he also is God. Into his perfect worship of the Father Christ takes us up, by making us living parts of his worshipping body.
