Holy Communion

The Sacrament is offered in both kinds, both bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms X, and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

All Souls' Chapel is refreshed following several days of focused action.

Thanks to the team of volunteers the pews were removed, washed, and waxed. At the same time, the floor was professionally cleaned and waxed. We are grateful to the kindness of an anonymous donor for the gift of the cleaning and waxing of the floor and the materials for cleaning the pews and storage container used to house the pews during the cleaning and waxing

Combined with the earlier gift of cleaning and protection of the windows, the Chapel continues to serve as a focal point of our Cathedral family, for the daily prayer offered by the Cathedral parish, a place of reflection and contemplation and a vital part of the story of St. Peter's.

The Chapel is open every day; you are always welcome to visit to pray, to participate in worship and to share this special place with a friend.

JUNE 29th PETER AND PAUL THE APOSTLES

Friend and disciple of Jesus, Peter was a fisherman from Galilee. He was the first to call Jesus "Messiah." Immediately following the crucifixion of Jesus, he left Jerusalem, but returned and met the Risen Lord. He was present at the revelation of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, and according to tradition, he traveled to Rome and served as the first Bishop of Rome.

Paul was born in the Roman Colony of Tarsus and so was a Roman citizen. He was also a devout Jew, and was among those who persecuted the early followers of Jesus for breaking Jewish law. A dramatic revelation convinced him of the truth of Jesus' divinity, though it did not require him to deny Judaism in any way. Paul then spent the rest of his life spreading the new faith, and his letters to the various congregations around the Eastern Mediterranean are the only contemporary records from the movement.

The Church's tradition teaches that Peter and Paul both died as martyrs in Rome during the persecution under Nero in 64 A.D. According to tradition, Paul was granted the right of a Roman citizen to be beheaded by a sword, but Peter suffered the fate of his Lord, crucifixion, though with head downward. They each have separate commemorations as well: Peter on January 18, for his confession of Jesus as the Messiah, and Paul on January 25, for his conversion.

As we celebrate Canada Day: Two Fathers of Confederation were members of St. Peter's – Hon. George Coles and Hon. Thomas Heath Haviland. George Coles served as the first Premier of Prince Edward Island. Both are interred in St. Peter's cemetery.

Mercy Coles, a daughter of George Coles, attended the Charlottetown and Quebec Conferences as well as the Confederation promotion tour. Her diary is one of the most detailed sources about the events leading to Confederation, including her reflections on the personalities of the Fathers of Confederation.

Robert Harris, famous for painting the Fathers of Confederation, attended St. Peter's School, was active in the parish and 18 of his paintings adorn All Souls' Chapel.

Today's Communion Hymn

1. In our day of thanksgiving one psalm let us offer
For the Saints who before us have found their reward;
When the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed,
But now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord.
2. In the morning of life, and at noon, and at even,
He call'd them away from our worship below;
But not till his love, at the font and the Altar,
Had girt them with grace for the way they should go.
3. These stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
And dear is the ground where their feet have once trod;
Yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims,
And still they were seeking the city of God.
4. Sing praise, then, for all who here sought and here found him;
Whose journey is ended, whose perils are past;
They believe in the Light; and its glory is round them,
Where the clouds of earth's sorrows are lifted at last.

Thanks For the Picnic!

To all those who came and helped put the picnic on over in the park, thanks so much!! There were plenty of thoughtful volunteers who showed up to make it an easy job for everyone. Special thanks to Sean for being the chief flipper!! The weather held off and a lovely, relaxed time was had. A great start to summer at the church which means that after the 10:00 service you will now be welcome to share a glass of something cold on the front lawn. See you there!

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The minister at the altar still uses the ancient attitude of prayer; he holds out the palms of his hands, like a child waiting for you to throw him a ball, or like a man going out to feel the falling rain after a great drought. The bread of God falls like the manna from heaven; bring out your baskets, hold out your arms. God will fill your empty vessels if you will uncover them. You who come to this sacrament, what are your wants? Open the gulf of your desire, that God may fill it. Who desires holiness, who desires to care more for others than for himself, who hungers and thirsts for the Spirit of Jesus Christ? Ask, he says, and you shall receive, but ask.
