TUESDAY, JULY 9th STEPHEN LANGTON (c. 1150 – 9 July 1228) was an English cardinal of the Church and Archbishop of Canterbury from 1207 until his death in 1228. The dispute between King John of England and Pope Innocent III over Stephen's election as Archbishop was a major factor in the crisis which produced the Magna Carta in 1215. Langton sided with the Pope in the right of the English People and the whole church represented by the Pope in the appointment of Bishops and the people of England to make laws. Langton is also credited with having divided the Bible into the standard modern arrangement of chapters used today.

ALL SOULS' CHAPEL is refreshed following several days of focused action. Thanks to the team of volunteers the pews were removed, washed, and waxed. At the same time, the floor was professionally cleaned and waxed. We are grateful to the kindness of an anonymous donor for the gift of the cleaning and waxing of the floor and the materials for cleaning the pews and storage container used to house the pews during the cleaning and waxing

Combined with the earlier gift of cleaning and protection of the windows, the Chapel continues to serve as a focal point of our Cathedral family, for the daily prayer offered by the Cathedral parish, a place of reflection and contemplation and a vital part of the story of St. Peter's.

The Chapel is open every day; you are always welcome to visit to pray, to participate in worship and to share this special place with a friend.

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The alms for which your generosity is asked are nothing exterior to the sacrament, but a part of it. If you were living in the days of the ancient church, you would be bringing not money, but cakes of bread and flasks of wine. All would be placed upon the altar; part would be consecrated for the eucharist, the remainder would be given to the sick and poor. Now you bring money. But your money is still presented along with the bread and wine, and it still means the same thing. The offering is your offering; it is you yourselves who are laid on the altar to be consecrated, and to be made the body of Christ. Your gift is a token of yourself. I break the bread for the death of Christ, and we are all sacrificed to God in Christ's death, dying in him to our own will, and receiving Christ our true life in communion.
