Communion Sentence
Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing: And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

Holy Communion
The Sacrament is offered in both kinds, both bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms X, and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Communion Hymn 370 Blest are the pure in heart Franconia

Motet The Truth from Above Ralph Vaughan Williams

This is the truth sent from above, The truth of God, the God of love, Therefore don't turn me from your door, But hearken all both rich and poor.
/ The first thing which I do relate Is that God did man create; The next thing which to you I'll tell Woman was made with man to dwell. / Thus we were heirs to endless woes, Till God the Lord did interpose; And so a promise soon did run That he would redeem us by his Son. / And at that season of the year Our blest Redeemer did appear; He here did live, and here did preach, And many thousands he did teach. / Thus he in love to us behaved, To show us how we must be saved; And if you want to know the way, Be pleased to hear what he did say.

from “The shining forth”, a sermon by Robert Crouse.

In Epiphany we celebrate the showing forth, the shining forth of the grace and truth of God the Son, and we begin in Bethlehem at the manger-bed of the Infant Jesus, with the wise men from the East. We come to worship him in Bethlehem, his "house of bread," for that is what "Bethlehem" means. We, too, may see his glory shining forth, as long as we have a faith like theirs, which sees beyond our worldly expectations, and rejoices with exceeding joy in his obscure and humble presence. This presence is God with us in bread, and wine, God with us in one another, here and now in Bethlehem. Here is Bethlehem; here we fall down and worship him; and here we offer him our gifts. Perhaps we have no gold to bring, but we have a gift which he will treasure more than gold - the gift of our obedient love. Remember the final verse of that lovely Christmas hymn by Christina Rossetti: What can I give him / Poor as I am? / If I were a shepherd / I would bring a lamb / If I were a wise man, / I would do my part, / But what I can I give him. / Give my heart.

Sometimes we need some road signs to help us see our way forward. That can be true of reading the Bible too. Have you ever wondered about the books of the Bible? What each one is about and how they came together?
